

LOVELY DINNER AT THE HOTEL PALOME

Montane Monthly

March / April
2018

Whats been happening this month?

March came but where was the sunshine? The snow just kept coming and the cold weather with it. It looks like we won't be having Spring this year. The good news is that Arcalis will stay open until the 1st May, so we can still enjoy all this snow for a bit longer!

So with the Easter holidays falling in the last weeks of the season there was no slowing down. With some staff leaving early it meant we all pulled together and got the jobs done.

Lovely again to see some return customers from earlier on in the season. Even Alejandro's favourites from Venezuela! And Neil is back to enjoy the last week here with us. I think he may have bought the sunshine too ☺

The lovely Sven and TinTin also joined us for 3 weeks in March. This being their third year here. It was sad to see them leave as they felt like part of the family.

So, the lovely Juan Manel had his family visit him this month. It was their first time to Europe. He knew his Mum, Dad and Sister were coming, however he had a surprise visit when his Grandma turned up as well.

We looked forward to our last outing of the season where the boss took us to a nice restaurant. This was before the hotel closed and everyone finished work. Some will head back home. Others will go on some holidays and some will spend some time here in beautiful Andorra relaxing and enjoying some well-earned time off.

So, on the last Wednesday of the season all the guests had their dinner early and we got our glad rags on and headed off for dinner. The girls from the rooms looked amazing as ever and Juan Manel and Alejandro looked very smart!

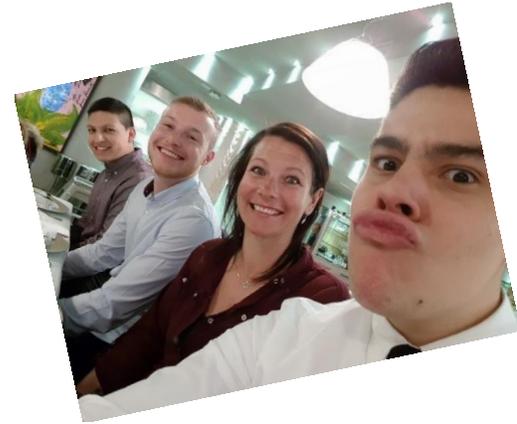

We went on our lovely staff meal to the Emo Restaurant in the Hotel Palome.

The food was lovely and the company too. And the wine also went down well! Our favorite guest Neil was there to join us too.

We also played a very entertaining game of "Chinese Whispers" With a sentence being passed around 19 people from all different nationalities it made for an interesting game!

Thank you to all the management team for saying some very kind words to all of us.

Of course, our March employee of the month was revealed as well. Well done to Aldana from the kitchen. 😊 It's all those amazing desserts she makes. Yummy!

So that's it folks, time for us to have a little rest and then get ready for the summer season! Thanks for a great season, see you next time 😊
